

I strongly oppose any rules changes regarding broadcast ownership that would relax the protections we have against monopolization of media channels. Our democracy is critically dependent on maintaining a healthy diversity of viewpoints, and ensuring the ability of those viewpoints to be heard through distributed and diversely-owned media.